5 Ways to Fête Fourth of July in NYC

From a pig roast to a jazz brunch, festive cocktails to fireworks, and beyond, there are plenty of options for a fun Fourth of July in New York City. See our five favorites below.

Celebrate on a Luxe Rooftop with JIMMY at The James NY

Hit up JIMMY at The James for one of the swankiest Independence Day parties in NYC. This Soho hotspot is serving up poolside Fourth of July cocktails like a white Negroni mixed with refreshing grapefruit, and chilled pineapple Mojitos. Guests should also expect a live DJ all night long and American bar snacks, such as Kobe franks in a blanket and mini grilled cheeses with cheddar and apple. But the real attraction here is the unparalleled views of the fireworks on the East River. 15 Thompson St., 212-201-9008
