

Rooftop pools, family friendly penthouses and stylish speakeasies: MailOnline Travel's guide to 20 of the best New York hotels

By Qin Xie Published: 01:45 EST, 15 May 2016

15. The James New York

© The James New York

The James New York is one of Manhattan's trendiest hotels and there's amazing views from the rooftop and rooms. One of the best things about it is the urban garden (pictured)

Unusually, the bathroom is enclosed by glass and a 'peek a boo' screen. As both the room and the bathroom gives views to the city, it's wise to consider the curtains.

The James New York is one of Manhattan's trendiest hotels and there's amazing views from the rooftop and rooms.

There's dining thanks to the superb David Burke Kitchen, which features a stylish indoor space as well as an 'urban garden' outdoor area.

Unusually, the bathroom is enclosed by glass and a 'peek a boo' screen.

Why stay here: The powerful monsoon shower will entice you to stay under its cascades for hours.

Rate per night: From £218

www.jameshotels.com/new-york