DINING + OUT

Your Hamptons fix

Get the East End
experience in NYC

If you're not among the masses heading out to the Hamptons this long, Fourth of July weekend, don't fret. There are still plenty of ways to enjoy a Hamptons-esque weekend right here in NYC, from chowder to poolside drinks.

For your poolside drinking fix: Jimmy at the James

At 18 stories above SoHo, the spectacular 360-degree skyline view may remind you you're not quite in Westhampton. But once you dip your feet in the rooftop pool and sip a freshly muddled cocktail you may forget otherwise. The Trophy Wife (passion fruit pureé, hibiscus bitters) provides a bit of tongue-in-cheek Hamptons humor. 15 Thompson St., 212-201-9118
